Another New York donor was Mrs. Frieda Frasch Whiton, who has given a very beautiful flounce of Milan lace in memory of her father, Herman Frasch. Our first example of Colonial silver, a bowl by George Hanners of Boston, has been presented by Mrs. H. Breck; and by purchase there have been added to the Colonial Collection a number of bookplates engraved by Paul Revere, Nathaniel Hurd, and others. 1 THE SPECIAL EXHIBITION CABINET installed in Gallery XI has attracted a good deal of attention as a novel method of focusing attention on single works of art. It has already been described in the Bulletin (January, 1918). The following list of the Leaflets which have already been issued in connection with...
