Muscovite eagle to Adrianople, where a most humiliating peace was concluded on the 28th August, 1829. But this victory was more attributable to diplomatic skill than to military success, for the Turks were deceived as to the military force under Diebitsch. All told, his effective force did not exceed 17, 000 bayonets, which was still further reduced by disease--a fact which explains the boasted generosity of Russia in not prosecuting her benevolent mission to Constantinople. But what she failed to accomplish by the honors of war, she almost secured by the blandishments of peace. By the Treaty of Adrianople Russia added to her treasury, 11, 500, 000, Dutch ducats, and secured the right to interfere in the affairs of Moldavia and Wallachia, thus punishing the villainous Turk for having the presumption to defend his own territory. She further acquired the whole eastern coast of the...
