Joseph a psychologist working with learning disabled adults and their parents sits in his office on the edge of Victoria Park in East London contemplating his day. He is tired and although now recovered from a motor cycle accident that for more than two weeks left him hovering between life and death he has struggled to re-adjust. Joseph worries his level of commitment is less than it once was. Since the accident he has been visited by night terrors. But when he first awoke from the coma he was convinced these dreams had a basis in reality. He believed he had been thrown out of his body and catapulted into a parallel world where he learned about his destiny as a One Soul and his role in the continual redress of balance between good and evil; light and dark. After work as he walks through the park to his car the sky is torn in two. A large tear tumbles to the ground and suddenly he is confronted by an old friend: A dream no more. Lightning is real. A living breathing creature and proof that quantum physics is more than just a theory. Also and quite naturally he is a talking, flying horse. He has come to take Joseph back through a portal and into a parallel world where they will try to rescue the other One Soul Lady Karina or Cora as she has become-from the clutches of Ben-the damaged son of their good friend Morag. In this tale Joseph is forced to endure frostbite-near drowning,...
