Excerpt: .whom we took to be Boxers, got up in red turbans, etc. They were down below us in the street, and stared hard at us, but disappeared into the crowd. We saw two fires to the north-west of the city, within the walls, but could not tell what they were. Now they tell me there is a great fire to the east, which it is feared may be the American Methodist Mission. 11 p.m.--This afternoon at four o'clock the Chinese Government declared that the action of the Nationalities at Taku and elsewhere constitutes war, and that we must all clear out in twenty-four hours or take the consequences. China against Europe, America, and Japan--absurd, of course, in the long run; but now we are in a very awkward predicament with our small handful of troops. A despatch has been returned to the effect that we cannot evacuate the place without proper transport and escort provided, and we await the answer; but Sir Claude Macdonald has just told me that in his opinion we must stay here, and sink or swim with the ship, and /lope for reinforcements--but where are they P fiffuzze 20: /z.--Soon after breakfast this morning we were all electrified by the terrible news that Baron von Ketteler, the German Minister, had been shot dead on his way to the Yamen, and his secretary badly wounded. It was rash of them to go, seeing how untrustworthy the Chinese are; but who would...
