The Mournful Haunting Sound of Foghorn, By Cesar Torres, p96 1. Introduction Writings are timeless and they act as mirrors of history. I publish writings as they remain relevant anytime. You don t have to be a good writer to write something. The only requirement is to write in simple terms to be understood. I have seen a lot of good writings in the internet, in magazines and newspapers. But most writers have only one or two articles and therefore not enough material to be published as a book. And yet, many of them need to be published. So the...
