This principle, if we have apprehended it, is, that the establishment and prevalence of right religious influences and institutions in our own land, is the surest and speediest method of securing the evangelization of the world. The principle originally applied, of course, to those who lived under the Old Testament dispensation. This Psalm belonged to the liturgical service of the Jewish church; and was a portion, therefore, not merely of the private devotional reading of that people, but of their public religious education. It was designed and adapted to develop a proper spirit in the mass of the people, and to shape the genius of the ancient church. The peculiar structure of the passage shows the close relation existing between the spiritual prosperity of God s ancient people, and the salvation of the nations of the earth. God be merciful unto us, and bless us, and cause his face to shine upon us. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
