I The claimant was a private in Company D, First Kentucky Volunteers, and in the month of March, 1863, was mounted, as were the other men of his company, on a horse of which he was the owner, at Danville, Ky., and while riding his horse in the streets of said place was arrested by the United States provost marshal in authority at said place and dismounted and placed in the guard house. He was arrested for being absent from his command without authority, and his horse was taken from him by said provost marshal. It does not appear in evidence what disposition was made of said horse. Said claimant was released from arrest and sent to his regiment, which he rejoined. The horse claimed was never returned to claimant and became lost to him. Said horse was of the value of $145. II. The claimant has not received any receipt or voucher for said horse nor any payment on account thereof. By The Court. Filed April 28, 1892. A true copy. Test this 12th day of May, 1892. seal.
