

DOWNLOAD PDF

The Pacific reporter Volume 70

By -

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 1078 pages. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1903 Excerpt: . . . defendant Juan Padilla was sole owner and in undisputed possession of the same adverse to the plaintiff; that during eight years that the claim of defendant Padilla was pending in the court of claims the plaintiff never claimed any interest in said claim of Padilla, nor in the proceeds thereof, nor until just prior to the commencement of suit by her, but on the contrary recognized Juan Padilla's right and interest as sole owner, and that the government and both of the defendants relied upon her representation to this effect. Issue being joined, the cause came on for trial October 30, 1901, before the court, jury having been waived. The plaintiff was called as a witness, and, in connection with her testimony, produced the following paper, which she said had been given her by her brother Juan Padilla: Albuquerque, N. M., October 6, 1900. Be it known by these presents...

READ ONLINE

[4.3 MB]

Reviews

Unquestionably, this is actually the very best job by any article writer. I have read and that I am certain that I am going to planning to go through once again once more in the foreseeable future. I realized this publication from my I and dad advised this pdf to find out.

-- Rusty Hamill Sr.

This publication will never be effortless to get started on reading through but very entertaining to read through. It normally is not going to expense too much. I discovered this publication from my dad and I encouraged this book to find out.

-- Otilia Schinner