Only when she meets two old peasants, she learns she s in the world Falaysia which is totally different to the one Jenna lives in. How she got there and why, remain unanswered questions to her at first - until she meets Leon, who also comes from her world, but has been lost in Falaysia for many years. Although Jenna and Leon feel uneasy about each other, they decide to get it together and try to find the way through the countries of Falaysia back home jointly. This is far from being child s play to them, because it seems as if a war is breaking out in Falaysia. And then there s additionally the feared warrior-prince Marek, who still has a personal score to settle with Leon and pursues him like a maniac. A man who soon threatens Jenna s life as well, but still fascinates her in a strange way.***** In October 2012 Falaysia - Foreign World - Book I won the German dnbp -award for literature. It s a wonderful book for connoisseurs and lovers of the genre that is partly reminiscent of Tolkien s Lord of the Rings and has all ingredients a book of this genre needs.
