

Building Long Term Strategies and Public-Private Alliances for Export Development: The Finnish Case

By United Nations

United Nations. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Building Long Term Strategies and Public-Private Alliances for Export Development: The Finnish Case, United Nations, The Finnish case of industrial renewal from essentially natural-resource-based industries toward machinery, engineering, electronics and ICT is of particular relevance for Latin-American countries. The study explains the crucial role of the Finnish innovation system and the long term public-private partnership in the industrial transformation towards a higher knowledge intensity and value added economy. The report recognizes the importance of innovation investments, but estimates as equally essential consistent long term strategies on facilitating conditions to build up a cooperative, confidential, and dynamic innovation environment.
