AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 200 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.6in. Around ten years ago (from 2003) I started my truth-seeking journey to find the straight path of God, to seeking answers to questions that needed to be answered. This need and passion gave me the motivation to start my quest. I didnt want to believe in a certain belief or a particular book just because I was raised to believe in it, or just because it was my family, nation or ancestors belief. I wanted to believe in pure truth just because it is pure truth and Gods straight path. I didnt care where it came from, I didnt care whether it was my family, nation or ancestors belief or creed or whether it was or is the belief of their enemies; it didnt matter to me what it was, as long as it was bright pure truth. I wasnt to reject a belief just because it didnt fit with my dreams, or whether it supports my life dreams or shadier themes, whether it supported my life style or it condemned it, whether it came from the east, west, north or south; it made no difference as long as it was bright pure truth and straight way of our great Lord. So that my belief and deeds would count in the eyes of God and they would not end up being false, a loss or a myth that would do me no good or only engender the worst in me. God knows what we do in the open and what we hide and his judgment is always just. I decided to search for the truth with complete honesty; an open mind and heart to my own self and God, as I was confident that the Lord would...
