Of library catalogues and lists printed in library bulletins only the more important, which may be said to be in some way contributions to the bibliography of the subjects dealt with, will be included. In the present number only a few titles of books containing incidental bibliographies have been included, but in the future the more important and significant of such lists will be recorded as far as they come to the notice of the Committee. Special effort will be made to obtain the titles of bibliographies printed in periodicals and in the publications of learned societies. In all these respects the aid of correspondents is earnestly invoked. Volume II, Number 3-4 July-October, 1910 BIBLIOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY OF AMERICA INCLUDING A RECORD OF AMERICAN...
