God has a plan for every life. We have no control over the family we are born into, but we do have control over the response to the circumstances of our lives. He was born into a poor but proud family in Appalachia, didn't go past the third grade of school, and left home at the age of fourteen. He traveled to Indiana where he got a job and supported himself. When the first World War was declared he joined the Marines and fought at the Battle of Belleau Wood in France. After the war he returned to Indiana, married and raised two sons and reluctantly raised his brother's daughter.
