C6932 2006d OCLC Number: (OCoLC)747705544 Subject: Hurricanes -- South Carolina -- Beaufort. Excerpt: . . . 11 Senator DeMint, it is a pleasure today to address you, and the Senate Subcommittee on the preparedness issues facing Beaufort County. As the Director of Emergency Management for Beaufort County, I have had the experience of evacuating this county on five different occasions. As the only county in South Carolina that requires an entire evacuation to include all levels of government, we face a substantial challenge to develop and maintain the level of readiness necessary to accomplish that mission. Beaufort County and the State of South Carolina, in its commitment to residents and visitors have developed an in-depth evacuation plan. In cooperating with our state partners, we believe that we have the ability to fully implement that plan, and successfully evacuate those residents who want to leave. Much of our ability to successfully evacuate depends upon accurate and timely weather information that is presented to us in a format that is convincing to the public of the necessity to leave. The Charleston National Weather Service Office, who provides our local information, has in the past, and we feel confident in the future, being able to provide these services. As good as the people are in the Charleston National Weather Service Office, they can be no better than the forecast given to them by the National Hurricane Center. In the past, and even today, we have continually seen improvements in their forecast. This rate of improvement cannot end. Adequate funding, training, and applying knowledge learned must be maintained on a level necessary to keep evacuation...
