But as the average is brought to two places of decimals, what is to be deducted on that account A point, if the decimal exceeds half a point. But if the decimal is less than half a point, what is done f Then nothing is deducted but the whole number. When are the totals at the foot of the return to be inserted in ink When the Annual Practice Returns are to be prepared, when the information then given will apply to the effectives on that date. Who is to be held responsible for the correctness of this return The captain or officer commanding the company. Why Because it is the record shewing the progress and efficiency of every soldier of the company, and is liable to be...
